Copyright Issues

The Copyright Act of 1987 (the “CA”) provides recourse for copyright owners who believe that material appearing on the Internet infringes their rights under Malaysia copyright law. If you believe in good faith that any material used or displayed on or through the Site infringes your copyright, you (or your agent) may send us a notice requesting that the material be removed, or access to it blocked. Before submitting a CA notice, it is important to consider if the manner in which the material is used falls under fair use. The notice must include the following information:

identification of the copyrighted work claimed to have been infringed (or if multiple copyrighted works are covered by a single notification, a representative list of such works); identification of the material that is claimed to be infringing or the subject of infringing activity, and information reasonably sufficient to enable Typhoon Studio to locate the material on the Site;

the name, address, telephone number and email address (if available) of the complaining party; a statement that the complaining party has a good faith belief that use of the material in the manner complained of is not authorized by the copyright owner, its agent or the law. Please note that you may be liable for damages if you “knowingly materially misrepresent” your copyrights. Fair use should also be taken into consideration; a statement that the information in the notification is accurate and, under penalty of perjury, that the complaining party is authorized to act on behalf of the owner of an exclusive right that is allegedly infringed; and a physical or electronic signature of a person authorized to act on behalf of the owner of an exclusive right that is allegedly infringed;

While we are not obligated to review User Content for copyright infringement, we are committed to protecting copyrights and may take action, which in our sole discretion we deem appropriate, including removing the material at issue, denying access to and use of the Site and/or terminating the accounts of violators, pursuant to the CA or otherwise. In the case of termination under this paragraph, Typhoon Studio shall have no obligation to provide a refund of any amounts previously paid.

Under no circumstances will we, our directors, officers, shareholders, employees, contractors, agents, representatives, affiliates, or third-party users be liable for any loss or damage caused by your reliance on such information obtained through such users. We may, but have no obligation to, monitor such messages or statements and any materials displayed, transmitted or otherwise made available through the Site.
